OVER THE LAST TWELVE YEARS, Open Books has grown from one person in a basement to a thriving social venture transforming thousands of lives annually through innovative programs, inspiring initiatives, impressive bookstores, and the endless power of books. In these pages, fresh off the celebrations from our first decade in business and looking excitedly forward to our next big ideas, we present a new look at the work we do every day — in all weather, in every season, year-round — and the people, partners, and passions that make all of it possible.
PUBLISHING ACADEMY

kicks off with an intensive month-long bootcamp. This year’s teen novelists will explore genres ranging from high fantasy to gritty urban fiction.

READERS BUDDIES

holds a special summer session for 18 young readers, matching them with volunteer coaches to combat summer slide.

STORYTIME

joins the ranks of official programs every Thursday and Saturday morning and makes a special appearance at Water Tower Place. Drawn by the live music, special guests, and plenty of books to read and share, WGN recognizes beloved storyteller Ms. Nancy as a Community Hero.

EVENTS

TEAM BOOKIN’ IT, sponsored by the Associate Board, runs to a grand total of more than $16,600 to support programs.

BOOKS

BOOK GRANTS for the season total more than 46,470 books, including a massive giveaway at The Muffler Shop for attendees of the Bud Billiken Parade, a special Open Booksmobile visit to the Reading Buddies program at Horizons For Youth, and time at SkyArts Block Party, the Chicago Poetry Foundation Block Party, and the 27th Ward Back to School Picnic.

VOLUNTEERS

Groups from Starcom Worldwide, DRW, the Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Professionalism, Bernard Zell, and GGP join our core team of individual volunteers at programs and in the stores.

STORES

The summer store event lineup features the Open Book Club, Read-Aloud Book Club, Chicago Nerd Social Club, Do Not Submit series, and Sidewalk Sale, plus special appearances by Kevin Coval, Ralph’s World, and State Representative Theresa Mah.
PROGRAMS

READING BUDDIES launches its school year sessions across the city, matching enthusiastic adults with young readers to work in pairs each week on the students’ vocabulary, interest, fluency, comprehension, and confidence.

CREATIVE WRITING FIELD TRIPS return to Open Books West Loop for their most epic year yet. New groups of young writers join us for workshops, then go across the hall to the bookstore and choose free books to take home. Our internal publishing machine roars to life as well, producing anthologies of each class’s work to share.

Fall semester READ THEN WRITE sessions, giving teens the opportunity to work on a prose or poetic memoir in depth over the course of several weeks, start up at partner schools.

PUBLISHING ACADEMY novelists return for monthly meetups to edit and add to their drafts.

STORYTIME continues twice each week, featuring special fall guests Pam Saxelby and The Mad Hatters.

EVENT

Make The Case returns for its seventh smash year, shattering all previous records for team participation, money raised, and bookcases made. The night nets more than $42,900 to support programs and results in dozens of custom-decorated, hand-filled bookcases to go to local schools. Harry Potter Trivia Night debuts to an appreciative audience of fans, selling out the West Loop store and bringing a touch of wizardry to the fall.

CREATIVE WRITING FIELD TRIPS hit an all-time record of 810 students in one month (February).

PUBLISHING ACADEMY novelists begin the final stretch of pre-publication editing workshops.

READTHENWRITE teams start preparing for upcoming author launches.

STORYTIME continues twice each week at Open Books West Loop and goes on the road, presenting a special Tales For Tots session at Mariano’s.

EVENT

Partners gather to celebrate the opening with live music and special readings, starting an official tradition of using the space for community workshops and activities.
